The Handing On the Faith Program

POLICIES AND GUIDELINES FOR TUITION REMISSION
AT NOTRE DAME SEMINARY

11/01/14
I. Introduction

Notre Dame Seminary (NDS) participates in the Handing on the Faith Program (HOF), which is offered by the Catholic Foundation of the Archdiocese of New Orleans. The following is a series of guidelines set forth by the Catholic Foundation for participation by students in this tuition remission program and for the fulfillment of the “Theology Scholarship Agreement” required of all participants.

II. Eligibility for Participation in the Handing on the Faith Program

These eligibility rules include all lay applicants for HOF funding.

A. Student Eligibility for Tuition Remission

1) To be eligible for tuition remission, a student must be on a degree track for the M.A. in Theological Studies, the Masters in Pastoral Leadership or certification as a lay ecclesial minister in the Co-Workers Leadership Institute program.

2) Tuition remission is normally restricted to employees of the Archdiocese of New Orleans.

3) The student must complete the one-time “Theology Scholarship Agreement” which requires either: a) a commitment to full-time employment in a Catholic parish, school, office or approved ministry of or located in the Archdiocese of New Orleans for three years; b) repayment of all tuition remission received through HOF; or c) some combination of (a) and (b) see “E. Fulfillment Criteria for the Theology Scholarship Agreement” below.

The student must also complete the “Application for Scholarship,” which must be submitted every semester (i.e. Fall, Spring and Summer). All forms must be submitted to the M.A. Department by the appropriate deadline (i.e. 1st Monday of April for Summer, 2nd Monday of July for Fall, and 1st Monday of December for Spring, unless these dates are seminary holidays. In the latter case, students will be notified and the date will usually be postponed one week.).

Students who meet the above requirements must attach a Written Explanation of their Financial Need to the Theology Scholarship Agreement. A new written explanation of financial need must be submitted every two years.

Applications will be reviewed by Dr. Chris Baglow, who will make recommendations for approval or non-approval for each student based on financial need and general eligibility. Finally, the Catholic Foundation will make the final decision regarding funding. Preference is given to students who have made significant progress toward degree completion and who have demonstrated strong academic success in the Theology Program.
B. Courses Eligible for Tuition Remission
The following courses are eligible for HOF tuition remission:
  • All Theology courses required for degree completion, with the exception of thesis hours.

C. Courses NOT Eligible for Tuition Remission
The following courses are NOT eligible for HOF tuition remission:
  • Undergraduate courses in philosophy or theology for those seeking admission to the graduate program.
  • Pre-requisite courses.
  • Thesis hours and/or comprehensive exam hours;
  • Graduate courses in theology for students not seeking a degree or CLI required hours;

D. Funding Levels per Student
The following funding levels apply to all HOF participants:
  • Students taking one course per semester: Partial tuition paid (50%) for one 3 credit-hour course.
  • Students taking two or more courses per semester: Total tuition paid (100%) for one 3 credit-hour course.

E. Fulfillment Criteria for the Theology Scholarship Agreement (please read carefully):
The express purpose of the HOF Program is to educate committed catechists and lay ministers for the sake of retaining excellent leaders in archdiocesan schools, parishes and institutions. Therefore, the Theology Scholarship Agreement is a COMMITMENT by HOF participants to either a) serve a specific period in employment in the archdiocese, or b) pay back all or some amount of the funding they received for their degree program so that it can be used to support others.

The following criteria apply to all HOF participants:

Criterion #1: Any HOF participant who leaves employment in the Archdiocese for other employment, religious or otherwise, must pay back some percentage of the total amount of HOF funding received. The tables below specify the percentage which must be repaid based on years of service:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>No. of yrs. served post-degree completion</th>
<th>Repayment required</th>
<th>Term of repayment</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>0</td>
<td>100%</td>
<td>36 months</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>70%</td>
<td>36 months</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2</td>
<td>40%</td>
<td>24 months</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Criterion #2: HOF participants may defer (i.e. postpone or interrupt) years of service for the following reasons:
  - Pregnancy and/or child-rearing;
  - Temporary disability/sickness (i.e. inability to work);
- The completion of an advanced degree to be used in full-time service of the Archdiocese as envisioned by the Theology Scholarship Agreement;
- Military service;
- Entrance into seminary formation in an approved Catholic seminary;
- Entrance into religious formation.

The deferment may last for as long as necessary according to the judgment of the individual. However, with the exception of those seeking advanced degrees outside the Archdiocese, HOF participants must remain unemployed during the period of deferment, or begin repayment according to Criterion #1.

Criterion #3: HOF participants are forgiven repayment for the following reasons:
- Ordination to the Catholic priesthood or the diaconate;
- Solemn vows in a religious community;
- Permanent disability for themselves, their dependents or their spouse;
- Death.

III. Funds Disbursed to Eligible Students

A. Funding is limited.
Unfortunately, since funding is limited, funding is never guaranteed. The decision on which students receive funds and which students do not is based on previously stated criteria in Section II: Eligibility for Participation in the Handing on the Faith Program. Students are notified by email of their funding status as quickly as possible after the Handing on the Faith application deadline.

B. Withdrawal from class paid for with HOF funds
If a student finds it necessary to withdraw from a class for which he/she has received HOF funds, it is MANDATORY that he/she complete a Withdrawal Form and submit it to the Registrar PRIOR to the first day of class.

If a student drops a class that has been paid for with HOF funds AFTER the first day of class, he/she will not be eligible for Handing on the Faith Funds for the next semester of enrollment. After the student has enrolled and fulfilled their tuition responsibility for at least one course in the next semester of enrollment, the student may apply again for HOF funds for future semesters.

I hereby affirm that I am taking courses in theology with financial assistance from the Handing on the Faith Program of the Archdiocese of New Orleans, and am doing so with the intention of completing a degree in theology.

In return for accepting this tuition assistance in my pursuit of a degree, I hereby agree to give to the Archdiocese of New Orleans, upon the completion of my studies, a minimum of 3 (three) years of full-time service in an Archdiocesan school, parish, office, or other recognized Catholic institution. I also agree that, should it be impossible for me to give any or only a portion of these years of service, I will reimburse the Archdiocese of New Orleans for the tuition assistance accepted, or some portion thereof, according to the fulfillment criteria listed in the Handing on the Faith Program Policies and Guidelines for Tuition Remission.

I understand that this is a Good Faith Agreement and is in no way legally binding in on either the Archdiocese or the undersigned. I understand that this agreement must be signed by my pastor, principal or supervisor.
