A Pox on Both Your Houses:
Moving Beyond Conservative and Liberal Labels in the Church

Featuring

Fr. Mark Massa, S.J.

Fr. Mark S. Massa, S.J. is the Dean of the Boston College School of Theology and Ministry and was formerly the Karl Rahner Distinguished Professor of Theology and Director of the American Studies Program at Fordham University. His work focuses on the Catholic experience in the United States since World War II. Recent books works include Catholics and American Culture (1999) which sought to understand how Catholics left their secure ghetto after 1945; Anti-Catholicism in America (2005) examined how and why Catholics see the world differently from other Americans; and, The American Catholic Revolution (2010) explores what happened to American Catholicism after Vatican II.
